

INT. CHUCK E CHEESE ESTABLISHMENT - DAY

Kids are running around, laughing, and yelling. Arcade machines noises and lights are going wild. DONALD TRUMP (American President) and his staff are holding their daily presidential briefing in a giant ball pit. DAN COATS (Director of National Intelligence) starts the meeting.

DAN COATS

President Trump, let me just start by saying what an amazing choice for your daily briefing to be held at. Chuck E Cheese definitely beats last weeks Eddy's Go-Kart Emporium.

DONALD TRUMP

I pick the best places. Always have. Always will. That's a fact.

DAN COATS

First thing to discuss, the border security and immigration enforcement improvements. As you may be aware-

DONALD TRUMP

Look, I'm smart. Really smart. I don't need to be told the same words every day. I know all the words. All of them.

Donald Trump grabs the executive order out of Dan Coats' hand and looks for his pen.

Where's my pen? It's a Trump pen. Capital T. Won best product of the year in 2008.

His staff looks around the ball pit. An intern finds the pen handing it back to Donald Trump.

Thank you, son. Isn't this guy great? You're a great intern. In fact, the best intern. Aren't I great at congratulating others? The media says I'm a sore sport. Wrong. Plain Wrong.

Donald Trump signs the executive order without looking at it tossing it off screen hitting a young boy.

YOUNG BOY (O.S.)
Ouch! Hey, watch it!

DONALD TRUMP
Somebody deport that boy!

Donald Trump reaches into the ball pit and pulls out a slice of pizza. He takes a large bite then sticks it safely inside his inner suit pocket.

DAN COATS
Second, we have-

Donald Trump snatches the order out of Dan Coats' hand, signs it, tosses it off screen hitting a young girl.

YOUNG GIRL (O.S.)
Ahh! Hey!

DONALD TRUMP
Her too! Okay. Great. They're signed. Let's hurry this up. My time is valuable. Valued at 3.7 million dollars.

Dan Coats brings out a map to show Donald Trump.

DAN COATS
Now President Trump, this third order is very sensitive. I can't emphasize that enough-

DONALD TRUMP
One second, Dan. Take a break. You need one, you look awful. Isn't Dan Coats doing a great job? Round of applause.

Donald Trump gestures to applaud Dan Coats before quickly shutting everyone down. Donald Trump takes out his iPhone and begins to type away.

It's freezing in this Chuck E Cheese. Where is global warming when you need it? False! Tweet. Sent. Done. Best tweet ever. I swear if I was a woman, I'd be all over me. Okay, Dan. Go.

Donald Trump puts his iPhone back in his pocket.

DAN COATS

Now this is a map of Moscow. If you would look right here-

DONALD TRUMP

Putin and I are Facebook friends. We poke each all the time. Best pokes. I have more friends than you.

DAN COATS

Yes. Now we have reports that show Moscow is built on top of some undiscovered tunnels filled with gold. If we can get to this gold it would fund the government and extend the debt ceiling. The economy would kick into full gear by 2020.

DONALD TRUMP

I have no debt. I'm great with money. The best.

DAN COATS

Across the board the government is looking at about $20 trillion in-

DONALD TRUMP

No debt. There's no debt. I have no debt.

DAN COATS

The problem is we would need to bomb Moscow to get to the gold.

DONALD TRUMP

No bombs. Putin and I have been Facebook friends since 2016.

DAN COATS

Another route would-

CHUCKE E CHEESE STAFF

Haaaaaaappy Birthday!

STAFF #1

Alright everybody, get on your feet and clap your hands

Only the Chuck E Cheese staff is clapping.

DONALD TRUMP

Clap!

Donald Trump's staff starts clapping.

STAFF #2

I say happy. You say birthday.
Happy!

TRUMP STAFF

(reluctantly)
Birthday.

Happy!

TRUMP STAFF

Birthday.

STAFF #2

Now clap your hands and stomp your feet!

STAFF #2 (CONT'D)

You're a birthday star with Chuck
E. Cheese / You're a special guest, we all aim to please / You're a big time, big star, goin' far / Here's to you our birthday star.

Yaaay!!! Happy Birthday!

The Chucke E Cheese staff leave after handing Donald Trump his cake.

DAN COAST

I wasn't aware it was your birthday.

INTERN

It's not.

DONALD TRUMP

Wrong. You're fired.

Another Trump staff member quickly takes the intern away.

DAN COATS

...As I was saying another route would be to drill down into Seoul and tunnel our way into Moscow's gold, but that would require shutting down the Trump World Seoul tower.

DONALD TRUMP

Wrong, the tower stays. It sells Ivanka's miniskirt line. Best miniskirts out there. Won best product in 2012.

Donald Trump looks around frantically.

Where's Bannon. Bannon!

STEVE BANNON rises up out of the ball pit next to Donald Trump. Donald Trump and Steve Bannon share a nod before Bannon slowly disappears back into the pit.

The answer is and always will be, I really have nothing better to do. How about this. I'll scribble onto the map and thats the plan. Okay? Okay. What happens, happens.

Trump reaches into the ball pit, takes out a box of crayons, grab the red crayon, and scribbles all over the map.

Now I have an idea. All mine, not Steve Bannons. Let's blow up space. It serves no purpose. That way it'll show those martians we mean business. And I'm wonderful at business. Now let me draw you my plan.

Donald Trump turns over the map of Moscow and begins to scribble what he thinks space looks like.

We'll set bombs here, here, and here. And boom. Bigly boom. Trump bombs are the best bombs. Won best product in 2002. The fact is, that's it. We're done.

Trump tosses the crayons pulling his iPhone back out.

Let me take a photo. I must send this to Melania. She likes this presidential crap. She's the best.
She won best product in 2005.

Trump dives into the ball pit, disappearing. His staff looks unsure on what to do next.

SUPERIMPOSE: Chuck E Cheese logo and slogan, "Where A President Can Be A President."

ANNOUNCER, young boy, reads:

ANNOUNCER

Chuck E Cheese. Where a president can be a president.

(beat)

Must bring a child to enter.
